Your Monthly Information Source for Everything AdQue.

Happy New Year!

We hope everyone had a nice holiday weekend. We have several new items in store for you this year. To start, we have added functionality to incorporate your Twitter feeds and Flickr photos into AdQue—see more information below. A new series of InfoQue backgrounds has also been created. Of course, your monthly images are available and we have a new set of social networking integration tips.

TWITTER AND FLICKR INTERFACES ARE HERE!

Our Twitter and Flickr interfaces have been released. Add Twitter feeds you would like to follow and display Tweets on your AdQue system. Link to your Flickr photos by following a user name and selecting the image sets you want to display.

The new interfaces can be found under the InfoQue tab. There are preliminary Twitter backgrounds available for your use. But, we want to know how you want to use these items. Please give us feedback on what is good and what we can improve upon. The interfaces will evolve as we receive feedback, so we can tailor them to best suit your needs.

Are there other social networking sites you would like to be able to display items or text from? Let us know.

Please send us any questions or comments about the new Twitter and Flickr interfaces. 877.246.7587 or contactus@adque.com

Social Networking Integration Tips:

First, make sure you use your AdQue system to advertise where to find you on social networks. Are you on Facebook not Twitter, or both? Do you run specials or giveaways through social network sites? Make sure to let everyone know the benefits of following your pages.

January Images...

As requested, this month's images have snow falling in the background to match our series with falling leaves. Please let us know if there is anything else you would like to see in our monthly images. We always welcome suggestions.
